AMENDMENT NO. 1

Amend House Bill No. 178 by deleting Section 6 in its entirety and renumbering the remaining Sections as appropriate.

Senate Bill No. 329—House Bill No. 178 is further amended, in Section 10, by deleting beginning with the third sentence the following:

"The member is required to keep the retirement system informed of the status of his claim for social security disability benefits through the reconsideration level. The member shall not be required to appeal the denial of his claim beyond the reconsideration level. If a member fails to comply with this section within thirty (30) days, his disability allowance shall be reduced to thirty-three and one-third percent (33 1/3%) of his average final compensation."

and substituting instead the following:

Should the member's claim for social security disability benefits be denied upon reconsideration, he shall, within thirty (30) days after notice of such denial, file an appeal to the Administrative Law Judge and notify the retirement system of his action. The member is required to keep the retirement system informed of the status of his claim for social security disability benefits through the entire appeals process as specified herein. Failure to comply with the requirements of this subsection shall result in a reduction of the member's disability retirement allowance to thirty-three and one-third percent (33 1/3%) of his average final compensation.

On motion, the amendment was adopted.
